

Often we are asked a very important question and that is: "What do you believe?" We are usually asked this when someone is seeking our opinion on a subject that is prevalent on their mind. Some people ask that question out of a desire to know how we feel about a certain issue. Other times we are asked that question so debate and discussion can ensue for the purpose of proving us wrong in what we say we believe.

All of us can attest to the fact we have changed our minds and opinions on some issue after listening and receiving factual information which proved we were in error about what we had previously believed. It is healthy to examine and reassure ourselves that we have the factual information about what we say we believe so we can defend that belief system to whomever may question us. I have often said, "If I had known then what I know now, I would have done things differently."

How would you answer the questions below? Give very serious thought to your answers for they will tell you where your heart really is. Remember from the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.

- ♦ What do you believe is most important in life?
- ♦ What do you believe about God?
- ♦ What do you believe about Jesus?
- ♦ What do you believe about the Holy Spirit?
- → What do you believe about church?
- ♦ What do you believe about eternity?
- ◆ What do you believe about life after
- → What do you believe about heaven?
- ♦ What do you believe about hell?
- ♦ What do you believe about creation?
- ♦ What do you believe about the soul of man?
- ♦ What do you believe about the Bible?
- ♦ What do you believe about prayer?
- ♦ What do you believe about the devil?
- ♦ What do you believe about marriage?
- ♦ What do you believe about infidelity?
- What do you believe about when life begins?
- ♦ What do you believe about a woman's right to choose?
- ♦ What do you believe about money?
- ♦ What do you believe about giving?
- ♦ What do you believe about tithing?
- What do you believe about God's will in your life?

These and many more questions are being asked daily by individuals and different groups to our children in the class room, through the news media and many other outlets. They may not be asked as directly as those above, but they are implied just the same. There is no doubt we are under attack by the enemy who is chipping away at the very core values of this nation which has made us the greatest country in the world. We better be able to answer these questions with the truth of the Word of God. All other belief systems are going to pass away, but the Word of God, which is established in the throne of God and revealed to us by Jesus, will stand forever.

This is called the age of enlightenment, but isn't it interesting how people are so blinded to the truth. What so many are accepting as liberty or their right to do whatever they desire, regardless what it may be, is becoming the prison which binds them in addiction, fear and failure.

Go back over the questions listed above and examine thoroughly your answers to each of them. Gather your family together and talk about these questions and make sure your answers are found in the Word of God. If you find yourself accepting of some belief that is contrary to the Bible, repent and ask for forgiveness. Remember John 8:32, "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

When we live in the truth we are living examples of the Redeemed. Remember our theme this year is "Fulfilling the Dream, Living Redeemed in 2016."
