Family Reunion

Many of us enjoy getting together with our family that we haven't seen for a while to catch up. It is a time that the young and the not so young bond together. We celebrate the good things that have happened and comfort the ones who have experienced challenges. Our styles and preferences are put aside because we are family. We share the same DNA. Families stick together no matter what. We enjoy the fun, food and the fellowship with our families at our reunions.

We are having a West Virginia Church of God Family Reunion. It will be October 10 & 11 at Family Worship Center in Beckley. We are inviting the young and the not so young to come together. Our styles and preferences may be different, but we are family. We have the same spiritual DNA. We will reconnect and catch up. We will celebrate with the ones who are rejoicing and weep with those who are battling some hard situations. We will fellowship and eat together at the Welcome Reception on Monday Night.

In these crazy days we live in, we need each other more than ever. I need you! I need to see you and hear your voice. You are important to me, the state and the Kingdom of God.

Please make every effort to be at the Family Reunion because we are family. Remember, you are loved.

West Virginia GIRLS MINISTRIES

What a beautiful time of year that is upon us! Autumn, rich with the color of changing leaves, is one of my favorite seasons.

I am so excited to see what God is going to do through Girls Ministries in the beautiful state of West Virginia. Girls Ministries began with a vision based on the charge given to the women of God in Titus 2:3-5. Since the development of Young Ladies Ministries (YLM), Women of God have dedicated their time, energy and abilities to disciple and mentor young girls.

This ministry is a vital resource for raising up daughters who are committed to Christ. Through this outreach young women and girls can grow to be spiritually strong, loving others, and knowing who they are in Christ.

As your State Girls Ministries Coordinator, I would like to partner with you in the discipleship of the daughters of West Virginia. Please prayerfully consider working with your pastor to bring this powerful ministry to your local church. I am here to serve you as a resource and help you in any way that I can. Please feel free to contact me through my email: club@wvcog.com. Additional resources can be found at www.girlsministries.org.

Heartbreak and Harvest

And said to the king, "May the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire?" Nehemiah 2:3 (NKJV)

Have you ever been heartbroken? In the above passage, Nehemiah finds himself sad about the condition of Jerusalem. He had received a report of how the city was in ruins. The walls were in disrepair, and the people who were there were downtrodden. He could not hide his heartbreak in the presence of the king. No doubt, that in the times in which we live we are saddened by what we see in our communities. We find ourselves living in the times that Isaiah warned us about in chapter 5. Truly our society calls evil good and good evil. Much like Nehemiah, we could feel overwhelmed at the condition of our world.

If the story ends here, we could lose hope in creating change in our communities. Thankfully, Nehemiah teaches us how to respond to heartache. He adds action to his sorrow and compels the king to let him rebuild the city. His sadness for its condition, made him an agent of change. Although the journey ahead of Nehemiah will be full of difficulty, he is successful in rebuilding the walls and rallying the people. Through insurmountable odds, he restores the city with the help of the people of God!

Like Nehemiah, I want to partner with you to win the young people in your community. Nehemiah developed a plan to equip each person with a tool and a weapon. I hope to give you tools needed to help reach the lost. Together we can train and equip leaders, formulate effective strategies for evangelism and discipleship, and develop plans to engage youth in worship services. God is preparing a harvest and I believe He plans to use this generation mightily for His Glory!

Will you join me in praying daily for the young people in West Virginia? Let's pray that God will use them significantly in the last days to see an outpouring of His precious Spirit!
